Meet the Camp Director:

Joe Papaleo

Joe looks forward to his 29th annual soccer camp this year, following another successful season as head coach of the Christian Brothers Academy (C.B.A.) Boys Varsity Soccer Team. During Joe's 29 years at C.B.A. Joe has won over 350 games, twelve section 3 titles, six regional titles and two state championships. In 1995 and 2007, Coach Papaleo was named "Coach of the Year" by the Syracuse Post Standard. Joe was also named 2000 New York State Private Coach of the Year. In 2005, Coach Papaleo was elected to the Greater Syracuse Hall of Fame for his career as a player and coach. He is currently the only soccer player in the Syracuse Hall of Fame. In 2013, Joe was assistant coach for the Syracuse Silver Knights of the Major Indoor Soccer League.

Joe began his career in soccer as an all-state goalie at CBA and went on to become Syracuse University's first ever All American Goalie. He was the National Sports Festival M.V.P. and first round draft pick of the New York Cosmos of the N.A.S.L. and the Pittsburgh Spirit of the M.I.S.L. As a professional, Joe was named to the M.I.S.L. All Star Team four times and First Team All Pro three times. In 1993, Joe was awarded Goalkeeper of the Year of the Major Indoor Soccer League.

Assistant Director: Marcello Vitale

Marcello joins Joe again as an assistant camp director this year with an impressive resume. He began his soccer success at North Syracuse High School where he was an All-State player. At Syracuse University, (1979-1982) Marcello became the all-time leading scorer and remains the all-time leading scorer with 44 goals to this day.

He made the All Regional team all four years at SU. After his time at Syracuse University, Marcello was drafted by Buffalo of the MISL (Major Indoor Soccer League).

Marcello coached alongside Joe at CBA and was part of both State Championship teams. He later went on to become the head Boys Soccer coach at Cazenovia High School.

Marcello is currently the head coach for the CBA Girls Varsity team.

Camp Experience

Joe's 13 years as a professional soccer player and over 30 years as a youth soccer coach has given him the knowledge and experience to run a successful youth soccer camp in Central New York.

Joe has also successfully managed youth soccer programs across the country. In fact, Joe was part owner of one of the most successful soccer camps in Dallas, Texas: Tatu's All Star Soccer Camp. The camp averaged over 1200 boys and girls, ages 6-16 in each of its 6 years in existence. Last year's camp was one of the most successful in Central New York.
