NEXT BOARD MEETING: 11/13 - Sunday

	within districts that did not have their own developmental programs. There are currently players participating who live in districts with developmental teams. Not intent of SFHA to restrict players from participating, as long as the number of players outside the district does not interfere with the development of South Fayette resident players.	2 additional peewee and 1 squirt player from outside of district interested in registering. Trinity folded their developmental program.
