

ASBR 2023 Additional Playoff Rules

These rules apply to both Alliance and Prep Leagues

Rules for the playoff games are the same as our normal rules with the following exceptions:

- 1) Higher seed is the home team and gets third base dugout, visiting team gets first base dugout.
- 2) No new inning after 2 hours and 15 minutes weekends and 2 hours weekdays, but no drop dead time. Play until there is a winner if game is tied.
- 3) Must use continuous batting order and no player can sit more than one inning in a row – same as normal rules.
- 4) Pitching rules/limitations:
 - 0-30 Pitches: No required rest period
 - 31-50 Pitches: 1-day rest
 - 51-80 Pitches: 2 days rest
 - 80 Pitches maxIn each game, pitchers will be able to pitch for 4 innings max, or 80 pitches (whichever comes first)
- 5) Elimination of 5 run max rule first 4 innings
- 6) Mercy rule – 10 or more runs after 5 innings

We ask that each coach provide the following information via email to their respective commissioners:

- 1) The name of the pitcher
- 2) The number of pitches pitched in the game
- 3) The date when the game was played

This information will be collected by each commissioner and will be shared amongst the coaches in their respective leagues.
