

Forbes Financial Planning Scholarship

Description

Dan Forbes, owner of Forbes Financial Planning, has been involved in the game of basketball for nearly 50 years. Since 2013, he has proudly served on the Board of Directors for the East Greenwich Basketball Association (EGBA), including as President from 2022 to the present. Over the years, Dan has had the privilege of coaching hundreds of players within the EGBA program.

With basketball holding a special place in the Forbes household, this scholarship is designed to recognize and reward the positive impact EGBA has had on its participants—both on the court and beyond. The award seeks to highlight individuals who exemplify the values, lessons, and sense of community fostered through EGBA involvement.

---

Requirements – please submit to Forbesfinplanning@gmail.com by May 15th, 2026

Applicant must be an EGHS graduating senior and submit a video (up to two minutes in length) reflecting on his/her experience with the East Greenwich Basketball Association. The submission should address one or more of the following topics:

- Involvement in EGBA as a player, mentor, scorekeeper, coach, buddy, referee, or volunteer
- The impact the applicant may have had on younger EGBA players, helping to foster engagement and participation
- Lessons and/or values learned through EGBA participation and how those experiences will influence their approach to college and life beyond

---

Financial Award

The 2026 scholarship award will total $4,000*(may have multiple winners)

---

History

The 2026 award year will mark the inaugural presentation of the Forbes Financial Planning Scholarship. Courtney and Jeff Cammans will generously contribute to the award and participate in the selection process. Courtney is a valued member of the EGBA Board and coaches her 3 daughters' teams.