

The 60th edition of the Richville Baseball and Softball Association kicked off on Tuesday January 3rd, 2023, with the January business meeting.

Attending: Mike Bowen, Josh Shimek, Steven Jones, Chris Kulenics, Jen Cunningham, Samuel Haiduc

Treasurers Report:

Total Funds - $8,760

Team Funds - $4,879

Liquid Funds - $3,881

Steve was given 2 checks: one from Barnhart Cane and one from Steve Jones's workplace.

Still had a $915.38 check outstanding.

Jen purchased a copier machine that will be used for association matters. Sam will be donating 3 bundles of copy paper.

Old Business

- Reviewed dates and times for in person sign ups. They are:
- January 21st and February 11th. There will be a coaches meeting right after the January signups.
- All registration forms, etc. will be picked up January 6th.
- Still need to get Chris signed up on bank card.

New Business

- Received $400 check from the Richville Park Board. Secretary Sam will be sending them a thank you note.
- June 8th for the Paul Sanko T-Ball World Series Extravaganza.
- Mike Scharver will be asked to take over duties at equipment shed. Unanimous approval from board members.
- Still need a new softball representative.
- Need to reach out to Scott Karrenbauer to see what he is doing with his team's uniforms for 2023.
- Sponsors need to be turned in by April 7th if possible.
- Reviewed Buckeye Photography quote – Chris is checking with his sister who also provides photography services.
- Sam will be overseeing all coaches background checks. A form letter will be handed out to all coaches explaining that they will either have a background check completed AND passed OR they will not be on the fields. All questions on ones that do not pass will be resolved by a quorum of the baseball board.
- Jen will be managing the sale of the Lucky Lotto tickets at both sign ups.
- Subject of keeping meetings on the 3rd Sunday of the month was brought up. No action taken.
- Chris discussed a popular band that may be available if we are to do the community concert this year.

The January meeting was adjourned at 20:50. 1st-Jen Cunningham: 2nd – Chris Kulenics
