ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

3.01 Organizations. There shall be seven categories of membership for organizations that choose to affiliate with the Corporation.

- A. Junior Member. USAV players who have been invited to join the club.
 - 1. Junior membership in the Corporation is limited to players between the ages of 8 and 19 who have not yet graduated from high school.
 - 2. Junior members are required to adhere to the USAV Code of Conduct.
 - 3. Junior members are required to pay the dues set each year by the Corporations, Board of Directors.
 - 4. Membership may be denied or rescinded by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
 - 5. If a player fails to adhere to the USAV Code of Conduct, the Board will convene and determine if dismissal is warranted.
- B. Active Members. Parents of junior members, coaches, and other persons interested in promoting volleyball on a local and national level.
 - 1. Active members are required to demonstrate a positive influence on the junior members and contribute to the well-being of the Corporation.
 - 2. If a coach, club official, player, or parent of a player fails to follow Corporation policy or USAV Code of Conduct, he/she may be dismissed from his/her position within the Corporation.
 - 3. Parents of Junior Members will be the responsible party for payment of dues as set by the Corporations Board of Directors.
 - 4. Other active members, other than parents of Junior Members, are not required to pay dues.
- C. Honorary Members. Persons and/or corporations that support the Corporation through in kind and monetary donations.
 - 1. Honorary members are not required to pay dues.
- D. National Volleyball Organizations. Not-for-profit volleyball organizations, national in scope, which contribute substantially to the development of volleyball at all levels. These organizations shall support, in word and action, the policies, goals and programs of the Corporation.

3.02 Review of Member Organizations. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to admit to membership, within the criteria specified herein, organizations making application for membership. The Board of Directors shall further have the power to transfer a Member Organization from one category to another, or to expel a Member Organization, provided that requirement of Article IX and X of these Bylaws and the provisions of Arkansas Corporations Code are satisfied.

- A. Every third year, the Board of Directors shall review the distribution of Member Organizations among the various categories to determine if such distribution reflects current relative qualifications of the organizations, and to take such action as it deems proper if such distribution does not reflect current relative qualifications.
- B. The Board of Directors shall review the status of a Member Organization if requested to do so by the Organization or by any other Member Organization.
- C. The Board of Directors shall review initial applications submitted by an organization desiring to affiliate with the Corporation. Professional Volleyball Organizations and Other For-Profit Organizations shall be immediately placed in the appropriate category. Other new Member Organizations initially shall be assigned Affiliated Sports Organization status for a two-year period.
- D. Any Member Organization failing to pay membership fees on a yearly basis established by the Board of Directors shall be assigned to the Affiliated Sports Organization category. To be considered for membership in another category, the Member Organization must re-apply following the procedures described in these Bylaws.

3.04 Membership and Administrative Fees. Membership fees, annual or otherwise, shall be set by the Board of Directors and specified in the Club Policies. Junior members shall submit their first fee payment upon accepting team or league assignment.

3.05 Proprietary Interest of Member Organizations. Member Organizations have no proprietary interest in the Corporation or in property at any time owned by the Corporation. Member Organizations shall have no right to receive, by reason of membership, any of the property of the Corporation either upon dissolution or otherwise.

3.06 Liability of Member Organizations. No organization which now is, or which later becomes, a Member Organization of the Corporation shall be personally liable to its creditors, for any indebtedness or liability, and any and all creditors of the Corporation shall look only to the assets of the Corporation for payment.

3.07 Individuals and Teams. There shall be no individual, team or organizational membership in the Corporation other than that specified in this Article IV, nor shall there be any voting rights for individuals, teams or organizations other than those specified in these Bylaws. Individuals, teams, and organizations that wish to associate with the Corporation may do so by conforming to the requirements specified in the Operating Code of the Corporation. To the extent that persons, teams, or organizations so participating or affiliating with the Corporation may from time to time, for convenience, be referred to as "members," they shall nonetheless not be considered members within the meaning of Section 4.01 of these Bylaws, or within the meaning of California Corporation Code Section 5056, and shall not have voting rights.

ARTICLE IV

DIRECTORS

4.01 Composition and Authority.

A. Number of Directors. All corporate powers and affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by a Board of Directors whose members are selected without regard to race, color, age, religion, or national origin and shall ensure reasonable representation of both males and females. In the elections, selection, or direct appointment to the Board, an affirmative effort must be demonstrated by the entity electing, selecting, or directly appointing that assures an equal opportunity for both sexes.
