TEAM ALASKA 130 CAPTURES 907 TITLE

The Team Alaska 130 squad had an outstanding weekend at the 2025 907 Hockey Tournament, capping it off with a 5-0 win over the Team Alaska 16U Girls in the championship game. It was a great showing of talent and sportsmanship across all Team Alaska teams who competed throughout the event. The 130 group finished the tournament with a perfect record, outscoring their opponents 23-1 over four games, and getting steady play at both ends of the ice. The team's goaltenders combined for an impressive performance, turning away 72 of 73 shots faced.

TEAM ALASKA 130 2025 907 HOCKEY CHAMPS

Easton Waalkes led the way offensively with 6 goals and 4 assists (10 pts), while Cooper Constantino (8 pts), Jackson Heisten (6 pts), and Dallin Smulick (6 pts) all had strong offensive performances for the team as well. It was a successful weekend all around for the 130 group, who showed consistency, composure, and teamwork from start to finish. Their strong play on both sides of the puck earned them a well deserved championship and capped off an impressive showing at the 907 Hockey Tournament. Congratulations to the players and staff on an outstanding weekend of hockey!

TEAM ALASKA COMPETES STRONG AT NAT1HL SHOWCASE IN BLAINE, MN

Team Alaska 18U, 16U, and 15U had a big week down in Blaine, MN when they traveled down to the NAT1HL Showcase, facing elite competition from across the country. Each team battled hard, represented Alaska with pride, and continued to show that Team Alaska can compete with some of the best. The 18U team impressed with a dominant showing, winning 5 of 6 games. Forward Baylor Berg led the offense with 4 goals and 3 assists for 7 points in 6 games, while goaltender Keagon O'Bryan stood tall between the pipes, stopping 43 of 46 shots over 3 games to post a solid 1.07 goals against average. The 16U team also had an outstanding weekend, finishing with a 4-1 record that included a thrilling shootout victory over the Philadelphia Hockey Club. Liam Yackel scored the game winning goal with a slick shootout move, followed by win sealing save after goaltender, Tyler DiCarlo, shut out all opposing shooters to secure the overtime win. The 15U team battled hard through each matchup, earning two wins while showing impressive effort and growth throughout the weekend. Connor Bullock led the way offensively with 3 goals and 2 assists for 5 points in 5 games, and goaltender Jackson Heinrich delivered a great performance with an 18 save shutout in the team's 5-0 win over the Philadelphia Little Flyers. From top to bottom, it was a strong opening showcase for Team Alaska hockey which is a testament to the players' hard work, preparation, and commitment to representing their state at the highest level.

DICARLO EARNS 1ST WHL PRE SEASON WIN

Team Alaska is proud to celebrate 16U goaltender Tyler DiCarlo, who recently earned his first Western Hockey League preseason win with the Portland Winterhawks. On September 7th, Portland faced off against the Seattle Jr. Thunderbirds, where Tyler turned aside 13 shots to help backstop the Winterhawks to a 5-4 victory. It was a special moment for the young netminder, marking his first taste of WHL action and showcasing the skill and poise he brings to the crease. Congratulations, Tyler, on this exciting milestone and continued success as part of the Team Alaska family!

GIRLS T1

TA GIRLS BEGIN SEASON PLAY

The season is officially underway for our Team Alaska Girls teams, and the energy is high as they hit the ice against tough competition across multiple age levels. For the 14U Girls, the focus early on has been finding their rhythm and developing chemistry while taking on older opponents and even matching up against boys' teams. Their hard work is starting to pay off, highlighted by a 3-1 win over the Blue Devils 14U on September 13th. Forward Paige Hise led the way with 2 goals, while goaltender Aurora Price turned aside 19 shots in a strong performance between the pipes. The 16U Girls have come out firing to start their season, posting an impressive 5-3-1 record in September. On September 27th, they secured a big 3-1 victory over the 19U All Stars, powered by a 2 goal effort from Ekaterina Moseley and solid goaltending from Olivia Yurkew, who made 15 saves. Both teams continue to build momentum as they grow together, showcasing the skill, competitiveness, and heart that define Team Alaska hockey. With strong early performances and steady improvement each week, the future looks bright for our girls team for this season.

TA PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Team Alaska is proud to recognize 14U Girls forward, Kensley Forbes, as our Team Alaska Player of the Month for September! In her first season with Team Alaska, Kensley has made an immediate impact on the ice, showcasing her skill, effort, and hockey IQ every time she steps out on the ice. Her relentless work ethic and positive attitude have quickly made her a key contributor to her team. During the month of September, Kensley tallied 5 goals and 5 assists for 10 points in 10 games, leading by example with her consistency and competitive spirit. Whether setting up teammates or finding the back of the net herself, Kensley continues to elevate her game each week. Congratulations, Kensley! Keep up the hard work and continue setting the standard for what it means to be a Team Alaska player, hardworking, positive, and driven to improve every day.
