Stoppers Get Their First Win

The first game was a blowout from the get-go which was marred by violence. The Stoppers put 5 early runs on the board by getting 4 base hits and a Mitchell Haddad triple. Poor fielding allowed these runs to score and the game to slip away. Mopre damage was done in the 2nd when the Stoppers got 4 straight base hits and made the score 9-0. Project 94 put 3 runs on the board in the 4th and 5th including Maurice Haber's league leading 9th RBI. After two doubles by Albert Levy and Ray Dayan, the Stoppers led 11-3. When a fight broke out in the 6th the game was ended. The Stoppers got their first victory of the year in a blowout but fell asleep in game 2. Pitcher and Captain Jack Braha played a solid game going 4-4 with 3 runs while giving up only 5 hits.

In a game noted for its pitching, Ezra Ashkenazi emerged as the star of this one. He pitched a 3-hit shutout that gave Project 94 the win. The only run of the game came in the 2nd with the bases jammed. Erwin Braha singled to score Richie Braha. The only real threat the Stoppers made was in the 3rd when Mitchell Haddad tripled. But Ashkenazi got out of the jam to keep the shutout. The Stoppers were popping everything up in the air as 17 of their 21 outs were pop-ups. Unfortunately, the quality pitching in this game was overshadowed by the scuffle that took place in the 1st game of the double header. Strangely, the Stoppers could not score despite the fact that they had 11 runs the previous game. The final of this game was 1-0 and it gave the Stoppers an 1-5 record.

Good Fellas Make Black Magic's Day "Blue"

For the 1st 4 innings of this one neither team could hit the ball. Both pitchers had one hitters going until the Good Fellas' bats woke up in the 5th. Doubles by Meyer Assoulin, Sandy Zinn, and Elliot Betesh gave them a 3-0 lead. Freddy Zalta picked up from the Japanese league for the injured Moses Eastman pitched beautifully until the Black Magic began to hit in the 6th. They tied the game after Henry Shalom drove in 2 runs with the bases packed. Jason Cohen drove in another one. Still in 6th, the Good Fellas had 2nd and 3rd with no out but couldn't capitalize. Neither team came close to scoring for another 5 innings when the Good Fellas ended it. Sandy "Mr. Clutch" Zinn tripled home Meyer Assoulin in the top of the 11th to break the tie. They added another insurance run and held on to win 5-3.

Somehow the Good Fellas simply embarrassed Black Magic in Game 2 of this series. Nathan Tawil got his team off to a fast start by tripling in 2 runs. In the 4th inning, the Good Fellas ended the game. They batted around the order and scored 6 runs to make it 8-0. Ikey Ash broke out of his strikeout mode by homering into left. Stevie Nahama and Elliot Betesh both doubled, and Sam-Buca Cohen tripled to highlight this rally. After Black Magic broke the shutout on a Freddy Weintraub homer, the Good Fellas did it again in the 5th and 6th. Ikey Ash broke out of his slump in style by tallying 5 RBI's in 3innings with a double, triple, and a homer. The Good Fellas added 7 more runs by the end of the sixth. Black Magic got 4 runs in the last two innings but this game belonged to Ash and the Good Fellas. The final score was 15-5.
