

JORDAN SHUCK

Girls Youth Academy Assistant Director of Coaching

Coach Jordan (Pawlik) Shuck enters her fourth year with ZYSA.

Originally from Fort Wayne Indiana, she played soccer at Bishop Dwenger High School. She helped lead the team to an IHSAA State Championship in 2009. In this same year, Coach Jordan was recognized as Girl's High School Player of the Year from the Indiana Soccer Coaches Association, as well as Player of the Year, High School All-American, and Scholar All-American from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

She started her collegiate playing career at the University of Louisville before transferring to Purdue University. At PU, Coach Jordan led her peers as a team captain and was awarded First Team All-Conference Midfielder ('12), Big Ten Player of the Week ('12), Academic All-Big Ten ('12 & '13), and was recognized by teammates as 'Most Inspirational Player'.

Coach Jordan graduated from Purdue University with a degree in Landscape Architecture and is currently working in the field.

When asked of her interest to pursue coaching, Jordan replied, "Soccer is a part of my DNA. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to pass along my passion and love for the game."

Coach Jordan plans to earn her USSF National D license this coming club year.
