Why Volunteer?

Volunteers are the lifeblood of Sartell Youth Hockey Association

Without each family contributing time to fill the many hours, SYHA could simply not exist.

We greatly appreciate the work that everyone does to help make our children's hockey experience a positive and enjoyable one and to make the SYHA program successful.

What's Required?

- Members are required to fulfill 10 hours of volunteer time for single player families and 20 hours of volunteer time for multi-player families. NOTE: Families are not required to complete DIBS for FIRST YEAR mites.
- As an SYHA member you are required to complete your volunteer hours before the end of the hockey season.
- Many volunteer positions such as Locker Room Monitor and Team Manager require registration with USA Hockey, SafeSport Training and completion of a background check with USA Hockey screening.

What Are DIBS?

SYHA utilizes a volunteer sign-up system called DIBS that can found on SartellHockey.com

- DIBS may include:
 - Event Assistance (i.e. Bean Bag Tournament, Intro to Hockey, Tournaments, Hairball Concert)
 - SCHEELS 3v3 League Operations (scoreboard, moving boards, jersey handout)
 - District/Regional Tournament Operations (penalty box, scoreboard, music/announcer)
- You can also earn volunteer hours, or DIBS, by leading or participating on a committee, being a Coach, Team Manager, Level Coordinator, Board/HOC Member
- NEW in 2020 – DIBS will not be used for concessions at High School games; DIBS will be limited for Hairball.

What Are NOT DIBS?

Team Obligations do not count towards DIBS

- Travel team families will also be asked to support their team by performing certain jobs throughout the season.
- These jobs include scorekeeping, timekeeping, penalty box, locker room monitors and other obligations that are essential for the operation of your team.
