

COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of the sport.
2. Coaches must place the well being and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of performance.
3. Coaches must adhere to all guidelines laid down within the Constitution and the Rules of BASA
4. Coaches must develop an appropriate working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect.
5. Coaches must NOT exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward.
6. Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behavior and performance.
7. Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of players.
8. Coaches should, at the outset, clarify with the player (and, where appropriate, their parents) exactly what is expected of them and also what they are entitled to expect from their coach.
9. Coaches must co-operate fully with others (e.g. other coaches, Umpires, Executives and Parents) in the best interests of the player.

10. Coaches must always promote the appropriate Code of Conduct and positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play) to players, parents and spectators alike. Behaviour contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant rules and regulations or the use of prohibited substances or techniques.

11. Coaches must consistently display high standards of behavior and experience and be a role model for players, parents, and spectators.

12. Coaches will refrain from all inappropriate and foul language in any form (verbal, text or email)

13 Coaches will not text or email individual players. All text or emails are to be group text or include a Parent/Guardian

14 Coaches that are removed from a game for any reason will receive an automatic additional game suspension and are required to have a mandatory meeting with the BASA executives before returning to any team events. Further disciplinary actions will be at the discretion of the executives.
