- (l) Adjournment;

providing that in the absence of any objection, the presiding officer may vary the order of business at his or her discretion.

4. Every member entitled to vote at a meeting of members or to express consent or dissent without a meeting, may authorize another person to act for him by proxy in all matters in which a member may participate. Every proxy shall be signed by the member or his attorney-in-fact, and shall be revocable at the pleasure of the member executing it, except as otherwise provided by law. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

5. The directors in advance of any meeting of Members may appoint one or more inspectors to act at any meeting or any adjournment thereof. If inspectors are not appointed, the presiding officer of the meeting may appoint inspectors. However, the Director or officer presiding need not appoint an inspector at any meeting of Members unless a Member entitled to vote thereat requests an appointment of such inspector. Each appointed inspector shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors shall determine the number of membership certificates or cards, the voting power of each, the number of memberships represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, and the validity and effect of proxies. The inspectors shall receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, ballots or consents, determine the result and do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all Members. On the request of any person presiding or of any member entitled to vote thereat, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of all matters determined by them with respect to such meeting and execute a certificate of any fact found by them.

6. (a) A majority of the Members present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a Members' meeting.

(b) A majority of the Members present or represented at such meeting may adjourn the meeting. When a quorum is present at any adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.
