Winter in Wisconsin can be an unpredictable time of year for playing basketball.

(Cancellation Policy)

- 1) Blue Diamond Athletics does not mandate or encourage any athlete or family to take unnecessary risks in travel. Always Error on the side of safety.

- 2) Blue Diamond Athletics will call off the event through email communication by 6 pm the day prior so coaches, players, parents, and spectators can plan accordingly. If the event is called off, team/organization/club will get an entry for next season. (No Refunds will be given)

- 3) If the event is going to be held - teams that are traveling can make independent decisions on whether they can attend. This is especially true in the process calling off an event due to a 'forecast' of bad weather the day prior to an event.
 - a. If the team chooses not to come and the event takes place for that day - The organization/club/team forfeits the entry fee and Blue Diamond Athletics will not give a refund or give credit for another tournament in the future.

- 4) Blue Diamond Athletics has the freedom to adjust the schedule if one or more teams cannot make the event, due to weather. → Teams that do play that day will get $25 a game if they fall under the 3 games guaranteed minimum.

- 5) Blue Diamond Athletics has the freedom to adjust the length of games and rules should the tournament start late, due to weather. (i.e. - 2 hour late start).

- 6) Coaches of teams that are not going to attend, due to weather related issues should call Tournament Supervisor – Tony Scallon at 920.948.6506 if the event is going to take place, so adjustments can be made for that day.
